You Did It

Monas Chaudry, Qa'id Ta'lim

By the grace of Allah, tremendous efforts of Zu'ama and Muntazimin Ta'lim, and great support of Nazimin, Majlis Ansarullah, USA has been able to fulfill our beloved Huzoor's (may Allah be his helper) direction—as expressed in National Amilah meeting of Majlis Ansarullah, USA held on July 2, 2012 at Harrisburg, PA—of meeting and exceeding the national target of 50% participation in Ta'lim test. A record number of Ansar—1,303 (50.5%)—participated in Ta'lim Test II of 2014. Alhamdulillah.

My heartfelt gratitude to Zu'ama and their Muntazimin Ta'lim who truly have worked tirelessly and have graciously tolerated my overbearing pestering. Please forgive my twice a week reminders for last 8 weeks—that at times would have seemed like annoying. Jazakallah! May Allah truly reward you, Amin.

Thanks to all the Ansar as well who took the time to take the test and helped achieve this milestone.

A Memorable Incident

Jamil Choudhry, Central Jersey

All great people value time. I was posted in Kuwait in the 1980s. One day, I saw a small news in a local newspaper that Dr. Abdus Salam was visiting Kuwait. I said to myself that I must try and meet him. I was able to contact him on the phone. After introducing myself, I requested him to grant me a short meeting. He was kind enough to grant my wish and asked me to come the next day at 3:51 P.M.

Dr. Abdus Salam was staying at Sheraton Kuwait. Out of excitement, I arrived 10 minutes earlier than the appointed time and sent my visiting card at about 3:45 P.M.—6 minutes earlier than the time I was given. To my amazement, I got my card back with a note saying: "Your time is 3:51 P.M." No doubt I was called in exactly at the appointed time.

This incident left a profound effect on me and taught me the value of time forever.
