Obeying the Khalifa, and enjoying the bike ride

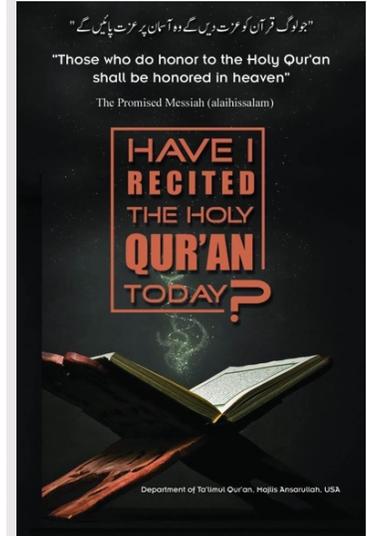

By: Safer Bhatti (Miami, FL Majlis)

On May 24, 2025, the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community Miami's Ansarullah held a spiritually uplifting Tahajjud program. Members gathered in the early hours for voluntary prayers, followed by the congregational Fajr prayer. Afterwards, they enjoyed a warm and peaceful breakfast together, strengthening their bonds of brotherhood and faith. It was truly a blessed morning filled with devotion and unity.

The members were deeply inspired by the words of Hazrat Khalifatul Masih V (aba), who reminded officeholders during an address to Majlis-e-Shura UK and Canada:

"Without God we are nothing. Don't ever think that anything we do is because of us or our skills. It is all with the blessings of God.

We are nothing without Him. We should never let our ego take root otherwise there will be destruction. You will not achieve anything of substance if you believe that you did everything. If you firmly believe that everything was achieved by God, then God will give you immense abundance to achieve whatever task. We need to become Sultan-e-Naseer—obedient and humble—relinquishing our ego."

Motivated by these words, the Miami Al-Naseer biking group set out on a memorable ride to spread the message of "Love for All, Hatred for None." Their journey began at Hallandale Beach and stretched through the affluent neighborhoods of Golden Beach, North Miami Beach, and South Miami Beach. Along the way, they received praise and encouragement from pedestrians, motorists, and shop owners, some of whom even refilled their water bottles. In commemoration of Khilafat, the group biked 39 miles under scorching heat and challenging conditions, embodying the spirit of "We hear, and we obey."
